The diagram illustrates the tournament bracket for the -60 kg category. It shows the progression of 55 athletes through various rounds. The central table lists the top 7 athletes. The bracket is divided into two main halves, each starting with a 10-man bracket and a 7-man bracket. The 10-man brackets lead to 5-man brackets, which then lead to the final 3-man brackets. The 7-man brackets lead to 4-man brackets, which then lead to the final 3-man brackets. The final 3-man brackets lead to the final 2-man brackets, which then lead to the final 1-man bracket.
